

Aut inveniam viam, aut faciam

Volume XXXVII, Number 36.

LOUISA, LAWRENCE COUNTY, KENTUCKY, MAY 12, 1922.

M. F. CONLEY and E. K. SPENCER, Publishers

PEACEFUL END OF MAN ONCE A
NOTED FEUDISTJohns Hatfield, Son of the Late "Devil Anse" Hatfield, Passes Away of Heart Trouble.

Johns Hatfield, oldest son of the late "Devil Anse" Hatfield, died suddenly of heart trouble Wednesday night, April 12, while crossing the mountain between the left and right forks of Ben creek. He had been in his usual health and strength and was in Williamson the early part of the week attending the trial of his nephew, Craig and John Hatfield, for the murder of George Cantrell, says the Williamson, W. Va., News.

When the Hatfield-McCoy feud was in full-tide a generation ago, John Hatfield was reputed to be one of the most active participants therein. He and his father and his brother, Anderson (Doc) now a peaceful and prosperous citizen of Logan, were the recognized leaders of the Hatfield clan. John's career as a feudist was terminated when Kentucky officers arrested him on the Tug river side and took him by force to Pikeville. There he was tried and convicted for the murder of Alafair McCoy, one of several killed when the Randall McCoy home, near what is now Hardy, was burned to the ground. He was sentenced to the Kentucky penitentiary for life, but was released after serving 13 years.

In later years he has been regarded as one of Mingo's good and substantial citizens. He was about 62 years old. For quite a long time he had been employed by the Glen Alum Coal Co. as a watchman. He was born at the old Hatfield homestead, near DeLorme and spent most of his life in that vicinity.

Returning home after attending court here, he and Mrs. Ale Hatfield, a neighbor and a relative by marriage started out to find their respective sons and to bring them to Williamson to answer to indictments returned by the April grand jury. Astride two mules they started across the mountains. There was a strong wind that night. The wind blew out his lantern light and Hatfield attempted to reach it. It is possible, as he did so, he said to his companion, "I'm about to faint," and then fell on his hands and knees and presently rolled over on his back, unconscious.

Mrs. Hatfield, with a flashlight in her hand, ran to his side and saw that he was dying. After putting her coat under his head and making him as comfortable as possible, she ran to the home of Charles Ellis, half a mile away. Mr. and Mrs. Ellis went back with her only to find that death had preceded them. In a short time the body was removed to the home of Craig Hatfield.

Johns Hatfield had been married several times and is survived by a number of children. His last wife, who survives, was the widow of the late Andy Toler. He is also survived by his mother, living on Island creek, near Omar, Logan county, and several brothers and sisters.

Worthless Check
Puts Man in Jail

A man giving his name as Landon Maynard, 48 years old, claiming West Virginia as his home, who taken into custody at the N. & W. depot at Portsmouth, Ohio, and placed in the county jail where he is held for alleged attempting to pass a $2.00 worthless check issued on the First National Bank of Williamson, W. Va.

According to the officers the prisoner approached a number of persons about the passenger station in an effort to induce them to cash the check which Maynard, it is claimed, following his arrest, admitted was fraudulent.

CONGRESSMAN FIELDS.

Elkhorn, Ky., April 28, 1922. I am in touch with Congressman Hon. W. J. Fields. He informs me he is a candidate for re-election. I write this article for print in your valuable paper in favor of Mr. Fields re-election to call the attention of all people in the 9th Congressional district of Kentucky. Mr. Fields has in his work in Congress that representative for all the people of all political parties.

I call the attention of the soldiers of all wars. Congressman Fields has never failed to go to their relief for justice in the pension department and the war risk bureau. I am a Civil war veteran. As Mr. Fields and I have worked together in the interest of the soldiers, we cannot get a Congress member that will take more interest in behalf of the soldier than Mr. Fields has. We should all be in favor of holding Fields in Congress.

Your for re-election of Hon. W. J. Fields.

HENRY M. HUTCHISON.

PIKE SLAYER PARDONED.
Governor Morrow Monday pardoned John Keene, Pike county prisoner, serving five years for manslaughter. Keene was pardoned because his wife permanently disabled and the Salvation Army has been taking care of her and two children, the older one 4 years old.

PORTIA WITH A RECORD

Miss Pauline F. M. Floyd, of Washington, D. C., the youngest lawyer ever admitted to the bar, now has the distinction of being the youngest lawyer to argue a case before the U. S. Supreme Court. Twenty-four years old, she has practiced law three years, being graduated before she was twenty-one. The young woman has never lost a case.

Henry Ford Educates
Kentucky Children

Buried in a hollow of the big black mountains of Kentucky are two isolated schools which are surprisingly similar in conditions and methods to the centralized schools to be found all over the United States.

These two schools are where miners' children learn their reading, 'ritin and 'rithmetic. They are far above the ordinary hill schools in Kentucky, which is due, mainly, to their being located in two mining camps, that Henry Ford owns. They are Kentucky county schools located two miles apart; one at each end of Ford camp. The daily attendance in each school is ninety-seven pupils.

A year ago it was far below that. This because the compulsory school law was in lax enforcement and because, so Ford mine officials state, the grade of teachers was low because of small State pay.

When Ford took over his two mines, one of the main outside interests was turned to the children of the miners. Pressure was brought to make every child attend class.

To the $50 a month, for a six months' term, allowed by the State, the mine added another hundred and hired a first class superintendent. Then another $100 was put up by the mine for an assistant teacher. This was for a six months' period. The schools run nine months, however, and the mine pays all of the salary for the other three months.

W. D. Martin, superintendent at the school at Mine No. 1, teaches the top four grades. Miss Myrtle Bennett his assistant, teaches the first four. The same plan is worked at Camp No. 2. It is the aim of Henry Ford to see that the miners' children get an education, says Abner Lunsford, general manager of the Ford mines. "We do not want to contribute to the already swollen ranks of illiteracy in this State."

And the kids themselves? Conditions have been made such that a truant officer has a soft job down here. The kids really enjoy their school now. —Middleboro Three States.

Sister of Ollie James
May Run for Congress

It is believed at Madisonville that Mrs. J. F. Gordon, wife of former Circuit Judge J. F. Gordon, will be a candidate for the Democratic nomination for Congress in the Second Congressional District, opposing Congressman D. H. Kinchloe, also of that city.

Mrs. Gordon is the sister of the late United States Senator Ollie M. James and is one of the best women speakers in Kentucky. She is an active club woman and has done valiant work for her party. Should she become a candidate and win the nomination, which would insure election, she would be the first woman Kentucky has sent to Congress.

Congressman Kinchloe is serving his fourth term in Congress and has not been opposed in his own party since his first election.

CHARLES R. NASH.

Charles R. Nash was born January 19 1846, in Peterboro, N. Y. He moved to Syracuse, N. Y., at an early age and engaged in the manufacture of harnesses. This business occupied his life until he retired thirteen years ago, when he came to make his home with his son.

Mr. Nash died after an illness of eight weeks caused by the infirmities of old age.

He is survived by one daughter, Mrs. A. L. Herr, and son, G. A. Nash, secretary-manager of the Ashland Chamber of Commerce, both of Ashland.

Mr. Nash was well known here and liked by all who knew him. He was the confidant of many persons in Ashland relative to business matters and his judgment along these lines was considered authoritative. —Ashland Independent.

OIL PRODUCTION IN KENTUCKY
DURING MARCHThe Blaine District of Lawrence and Johnson Counties Shows Additional Output.

Crude oil runs from the eastern and Southern Kentucky fields, as reported by the Cumberland Pipe Line Company for the week ending April 15, totaled $9,110.09 barrels as compared with 78,759.59 barrels for the previous week, an increase of considerably over 1,000 barrels. The feature of the report is the steady increase in the production of the Magoffin county pool, which is now running around 25,000 barrels a week. The Blaine district of Lawrence and Johnson counties also shows additional output. Following is the production by districts:

District	Runs
Buassville	311.21
Fallsburg	427.44
Cooper	425.38
Elk Spring Valley	224.97
Farmleyville	613.51
Stubenville	305.23
Cannel City	909.96
Fitchburg	6,324.71
Ravenna	6,411.36
Campton	889.07
Wagonsville	373.42
Potter	732.30
Ragland	478.12
Susie	1,254.83
Pilot	2,494.53
Zachariah	1,267.35
Big Sinking	5,022.36
Ross Creek	1,139.19
Big Sinking	4,560.23
Beattyville	486.38
Hell Creek	1,706.35
Beaver Creek	297.57
Blaine	2,843.07
Blaine	10,948.05
Menifee	191.46
McKinney	116.16
Oil Springs	9,115.21
Wheelerburg	7,163.94
Burton	3,874.88
Falcon	4,867.39
Red Bush	245.12
Total	80,110.09

Chauncey Depew's Views on His 88th Birthday

New York, April 22.—"I see more hope for the future of the world on my eighty-eighth birthday anniversary than on any other anniversary in the last seven years," declared Chauncey M. Depew, who will be 88 years young to-morrow. "I think that all young will be stopped and that we are about to enter upon an era of universal peace."

"I feel like a man of 48 years, and not 88," said Mr. Depew. "There is no such thing as age, if one does not think about it."

"To me the world is like a garden. You can't pull up all the weeds, but you can grow in it the things you like. I think the young girls of today are just as good as their grandmothers were, and short skirts are to be preferred to hoop skirts."

"If I could not control my appetites, or had rheumatism or indigestion I would think the world was going to the bowwows."

"I have no food fads nor exercise fads."

"My advice to young men is: Stick to the old home and the old church. The salvation of the world today lies in hard work and faith."

Senator Tabor Marries in Carter County

State Senator Bannie Tabor of Olive Hill, has been a busy man the past several months looking after the interests of his constituents at Frankfort, but neither politics nor business pursuits have caused him to be a laggard in traveling the old, old path of love and romance. For some time it has been whispered around that Bannie had become smitten with the smiles of one of Carter county's estimable ladies, and today (Thursday) at Wolf he will be united in marriage to Mrs. Corrie Prater, widow of Wilson Prater. The maiden name was Saulsbury and she is a native of Floyd county.

The bridal couple will spend two weeks in Lexington and other Central Kentucky points, after which they will reside at Olive Hill. While Bannie is not at Frankfort, he is a traveling salesman and is well liked throughout his territory. —Grayson Journal.

CONVICTS ESCAPE FROM FRANKFORT PRISON

Frankfort, Kentucky.—Devising saws from steel ribs taken from canvas leggings, Leonard Crawford, awaiting transportation to the Federal penitentiary at Atlanta for post office robbery, and William Williams, ex-convict, awaiting review of his conviction for passing a forged check, cut the corner of the steel lining from a cell in the Franklin county jail, pried bricks loose with a bar torn off a cot, escaped.

The pair escaped from the old death cell on the third floor, letting themselves down to the ground with blankets. As an extra precaution, because Crawford had broken jail twice at Pikeville, Jailer George M. Winters, who has been ill with influenza, placed two extra guards on watch.

ANOTHER POOR LITTLE RICH GIRL?

Miss Isabelle Rockefeller

With the arrival in New York of little Violette Helene de Talleyrand, daughter of the former Anna Gould, and sometimes called the poor little rich girl, in charge of a maid, come renewed reports of domestic difference between the Duke and his American wife. Little Violette was almost sent to Ellis Island on her arrival, being rescued at the crucial moment by her aunt, Mrs. Finley J. Shepard, formerly Helen Gould. While Violette was being detained, Miss Isabelle Rockefeller, daughter of Percy Rockefeller, made entry on her return to America without difficulty.

Miss de Talleyrand

DR. F. F. SHANNON.

The Courier-Journal of April 16th publishes a picture of Rev. Dr. Frederick F. Shannon, of Chicago, followed by the following sketch:

The Rev. Dr. Frederick Shannon, a Kentuckian, after fifteen years as pastor of the Reformed Church on the Heights, Brooklyn, has been called to the Central Church, Chicago, one of the most prominent pastorates in the country, succeeding the Rev. Dr. Frank W. Gunsaulus.

Dr. Shannon's acceptance, declared "Dr. Shannon's acceptance, declared: 'To see my precious church pass into the hands of my beloved friend is more than I could have dreamed of, through all the years in which I have seen him growing stronger and sweeter, more eloquent and tender, and now one of the outstanding heralds of the Great Gospel.'

"I have not dared to speak of him with that fullness of admiration and reverence which are in my heart and mind, because such characterization might create for him problems which he would not care to solve, for he is a laborer in the vineyard of Christ and has no master but the Lord of the vineyard."

Dr. Shannon, now ranked with the greatest of religious minds, was born at Louisa in the Sandy Valley. It is said he and his family will tour the State and visit relatives in Kentucky this summer.

DENNIS AND TUSCOLA

Isaac Cunningham was the dinner guest of Harve Daniels Sunday.

Heston Rice and Mathew Kitchen attended Sunday school at Oliveville Sunday last.

Church at Green Valley Saturday night. Everybody come.

Bill Grubb passed up our creek Sunday.

Matthew Kitchen passed up our creek Sunday enroute to Dennis.

Jim and Fred Vanhorn attended Sunday school at McDaniel Sunday.

John Bush was calling on his father Sunday.

Several from here attended the ball game at Trinity Sunday.

Taylor and Oscar Boggs were calling on Heston Rice Sunday.

LITTLE AND BIG CAT.

Jews are Saved by
COL. MORROW, REPORT

Frankfort, Ky., April 20.—The story by a Corporal in the command of Lieut. Col. Charles H. Morrow in Russia of how the Kentucky officer saved a congregation of Jews at worship in a Siberian village from a pogrom about to be instituted by Gen. Gregorie Semenov's Cossacks and Mongols has been printed in a Jewish paper recently. Hearing that the Cossack chief had ordered an attack on Yom Kippur, Colonel Morrow sent word that if the Jews were molested the American troops would protect them.

THE CHURCH CHEAT.

Church support is an obligation. Church attendance is a duty. Worship is absolutely essential. And every honest man and woman discharges these duties and obligations every week. Contributions of time, talent, thought, and interest are demanded. It is an honor to give. It is an honor, privilege, and duty to give. We are God's stewards. All we have been entrusted to us. It is our duty to support the church. The Christian church has created and added fifty cents of every dollar's worth of property in America.

Every time one goes to church he should make an honest, conscientious contribution to the great work of the church. When the collection plate reaches one his honor, sincerity, integrity, and character are immediately tested and when he because he imagines no one sees him, puts upon the plate pennies when he ought to put pounds brands himself before God and the Bar of God as a thief. He is perfectly willing to pay an extravagant sum to go to a filthy theater, questionable show, or suggestive screen

WEST VA. SCHOOL
IN M'DOWELL CO.
REPORTS PERFECTJ. F. Harrison, of Wayne, is Principal, and Miss Chattie Sullivan, Teacher, in This School.

The following is from the Bluefield, W. Va., Telegraph:
The McDowell County Dental Clinic, under the directorship of G. T. Epling, finished their work at the Big Sandy school, Brown's creek district, January 21. This school made 100 per cent which means that each pupil in the system, in which there are 186 pupils in attendance, has had his or her teeth examined by one of the dentists of the clinic and if necessary teeth either filled or extracted.

One of the interesting facts brought about by this work is that the pupils in the school that have perfect teeth have made a record in school attendance and in case they were absent from school during the present term their excuses show that their sickness was not caused by any digestive trouble.

Twenty-five per cent of the children had no work for the dentists to do, which was an increase of fifteen per cent over last year and nearly twenty-five per cent increase over two years ago. This is attributed to the fact that their teeth were left in perfect condition last year by the clinics and they were taught by the hygienists to properly care for their teeth.

In the fifth grade room, Miss Chattie Sullivan, teacher, had worked a teeth project since the hygienists were here last year. Through the help of the Colgate Company a close checking system was used on each pupil. The result was the grade had one-third of the pupils with teeth in perfect condition. These children have practically all made perfect attendance and are noted throughout the system for their personal cleanliness and excellent school work.

J. Floyd Harrison of Wayne is principal of the school.

This community was fortunate in having two excellently trained and particularly energetic dentists to do the dental work: Dr. Greenburg, of Harvard Dental College, and Caudill of Baltimore Dental College. Both are experienced in clinic work.

After the work was finished it was inspected by Dr. Epling, who went to the various rooms of the system. He also searched for symptoms of malnutrition. These cases were advised about the proper diet to make them grow. Each grade was given a short demonstration of what proper feeding will do for the growing body.

The climax of the dental work was reached when the community meeting was held at the Recreation Hall at Big Sandy Monday, March 20. All the pupils of the system were brought to this room by the various teachers. Several parents were in attendance.

Marshal Appointed in West Virginia

Charleston, W. Va., May 1.—Siegel Workman, Boone county banker, was sworn in today as United States marshal for the southern district of West Virginia. He took the oath of office before Judge McClintock in the federal court room here. Shortly after, deputies of the new officers were sworn in. New appointments made by the marshal include: H. H. Humphries of Madison, who will be stationed in Charleston; Elbert E. Buskirk of Huntington, to be stationed in Huntington; John H. Hunt, of Welch, to be stationed there; J. T. Reynolds of O'efe, to be stationed in Charleston and Robert F. Beasley of Hinton, to be stationed in Charleston.

Among the deputies Mr. Workman announced he will temporarily retain are: F. T. Miller, chief deputy under former United States Marshal Osborn; J. W. Franklin of Frye, supervising deputy at Nitro; Miss M. C. Barrett, stenographer in the Charleston office; J. C. Anderson of Charleston, and J. H. Bull of Huntington. Mr. Workman filed a $20,000 bond. He was appointed several weeks ago by President Harding, after Senators Sutherland and Elkins had agreed upon him.

POEM BY UNCLE JOHN

PESSIMISM.

Friend let me utter it, under my breath,—ain't it a fright to be governed to death? Think of the pitiless riders we tote, spurring us deeper each time that we vote! Taxes increase and Liberty squeezed—freedom befeathered, deformed and diseased—luxuries—things that we seldom may find, covered with "license" to fatten the grind. Legislate constant, and legislative strong—of fools that must boost it all! I have grown weary with burr tax, weary of blood-suckers, weary of our backs! Prone to rebel, a million could win. Galling with the fix we are in. Dirty poltroons with a surplus of greed, suck up our rings and rob us of feed. Hence I am muttering, under my breath, I say, it's a shame, to be governed to death.

The NEWS office has for free distribution some vegetable and flower seed sent by Congressman W.J. Fields. Call or write for package. If

Punchettes

by
Rev. M.A. MATTHEWS
D.D., LL.D.

THE CHURCH CHEAT.

Church support is an obligation. Church attendance is a duty. Worship is absolutely essential. And every honest man and woman discharges these duties and obligations every week. Contributions of time, talent, thought, and interest are demanded. It is an honor to give. It is an honor, privilege, and duty to give. We are God's stewards. All we have been entrusted to us. It is our duty to support the church. The Christian church has created and added fifty cents of every dollar's worth of property in America.

Every time one goes to church he should make an honest, conscientious contribution to the great work of the church. When the collection plate reaches one his honor, sincerity, integrity, and character are immediately tested and when he because he imagines no one sees him, puts upon the plate pennies when he ought to put pounds brands himself before God and the Bar of God as a thief. He is perfectly willing to pay an extravagant sum to go to a filthy theater, questionable show, or suggestive screen

